

Dream Planner

A relaxed arrangement is a well prepared one, so I have compiled a step-by-step guide below.

How to be prepared, how to inform me so I can best prepare and what is requested and expected during our Dream Date.

Should you Allow Me?

Leave the plans to me to fill the itinerary, all I require is the following 5 steps emailed or S.M.S to me.

1. The dates you wish to escape with me (possible alternative options too).
2. The times and location you will wish to meet with me to commence our dream date
3. The style of experience (think by sea, snow, tropical getaway, city, restaurant, forest escape, winery, spa date)?
4. And your budget?
5. Your deposit, 20 % of the experience chosen (see the gratuities page to get a better idea of how I am to be remunerated for my gifts)

The options are only limited by your budget and imagination. This option is my favourite as it helps with time management, I'm well organised in this department. I will keep you informed whilst you go along attending to your busy days.

You Wish to Plan this For Us?

I do enjoy a forward approach to all things leisure, I'm equally happy to take a back seat and adore you and your planning, however just a few things to keep in mind.

1. Please keep me informed as the above mentioned 1, 2 & 3 steps are required to allow me to be properly prepared (imagine I require to have my swimmers or snow gear packed, arrive on time, clear my schedule ahead of the dates).
2. Sometimes we become creative with timing, we call this a bespoke experience the time or experience is not listed. Point 2 above allows us to equate the remuneration for my gift (of time shared), informed ahead of time avoids confusion around deposits or balance of the remaining gratuities.

3. Deposit of 20% for long bookings is requested on booking, this holds your date requests exclusive and allows me to black out my diary for you.
This also shows me you are aware of the remainder gratuity to be offered once we meet for our dream date.
This may seem obvious, just to clarify money discussions in person cheapens the fantasy. I request to avoid negotiation of money in person and remain intimate.
Paying your deposit at the time of making the booking further shows you respect my time for planning to be with you too.

Terms and Conditions

The most relaxed affair is the one where we are both well informed of the terms and conditions to allow the optimal personality shine through.

1. 5 hours unbroken sleep per night (this means rolling over and expecting naughties during the time of rest isn't an option)
2. 5 hours a day for me to use as I wish, exercise, make up, administration catch up, reading (this time does not include check in calls or planning arrangements on the go for us).
3. Locations for meeting and adventures during our stay to be sent prior to events commencing to allow optimal planning pre-events (as much as I wish I were a wallflower I lead a busy life, time away requires a little planning on my part too).
4. The gratuity is to be paid in entirety at the commencement of the dream date, any additional costs will remain the responsibility of the host (yourself) covered incidentals food, accommodation, transfers, tickets, etc.
4. Lastly if this is all too confusing, please prompt me in writing to clarify remuneration total to remain intimate during our time together.
I am a companion not a mathematician, I listed experiences to help me manage my time with less negotiations. If you decide to get creative with your time, please be mindful, it all equates to a fair exchange you lead time is appreciated.
5. Last minute arrangements, changes and calculations are not nice to be expected to account for, please avoid this. If you do find this is something you cannot avoid, show me that you appreciate the additional time required by me by remunerating me in the form of a tip.

Thank you for taking to time to read this P.D.F. thoroughly, you are appreciated and any further clarity on points above or planning will be best answered by email.
